

SUBMISSION FORM

THE 2012 PIONEER VALLEY TRANSITION TOWNS FILM FESTIVAL

Locally Made Films about Building community resilience in an uncertain future

CRITERIA

1. Any individual or group of people may submit a film that meets the guidelines. (See #4)
2. All entries must be suitable for general audiences.
3. Video content must include sustainable elements in your town that can guide residents toward a resilient and or sustainable community by 2030 in the face of economic instability, diminishing natural resources and rising fossil fuel costs, global warming, and other economic and environmental challenges.
4. The overall film topics are primarily based on sustainability and community resiliency and include food/farming, health and medicine, education, economy, transportation, energy, housing, environmental activism, and creative ways of informing the public about these important topics. For more Transition Town information: transitionnetwork.org.
5. Films may be submitted by adults, high school students, or youth in grades eighth or lower. Applicants can enter competitive or non-competitive categories.
6.
 - a. Films will be ten minutes or less
 - b. All entries must be in DVD format. HD is acceptable but not required.
 - c. Competitors will receive prizes.
7. Films will be judged on story telling and technical proficiency.
8.
 - a. Filmmakers must be able to provide documented permission for participants and copyrighted materials to be used in the Film Festival. Music [songs] or musical score must be Original, Public Domain or used with written permission of the Copyright Holder.
 - b. Entrants retain all copyrights and must grant permission for their film/videos to be shown on Community Access Television stations in the United States and on other Television stations internationally.
9. While all films will be aired on the Community Access TV stations, only 10 films will be shown at the festival due to time constraints.

The submission deadline for 2 non-returnable DVD copies of your work will be September 28th, 2012

Please send your 2 DVDs to the Pioneer Valley Transition Towns Film Festival, GCTV, PO Box 807, Greenfield, MA 01302.

Please indicate the categories you are submitting in:

Adult Competitive
 High school Non-competitive
 Youth (Grs 8th and under)

----- Please Print -----

Name: _____ Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Submitter's Signature

Date

Parent Signature if Minor Submitting

Date

The Film Festival Organizing Group is available for questions and support.

Administrative questions:

Judy Phillips, judy-dharma@crocker.com,
978.544.2653
Jessica Tanner, 413.727.3295

Technical Questions:

Bree Kehmeier, 413.265.1012
Scott MacPherson, GCTV Mgr, scott@GCTV.org,
413.774.4288

Or visit www.transitionnorthfield.org for more information.