

JOIN US FOR A GLEANING EVENT:
FEED YOUR NEIGHBORS and FEED YOURSELF

The Gleaners by Jean Francois Millet

Gleaning is an ancient method of gathering edible food that has been left behind after the harvest so that it may be consumed rather than left to decay.

DATE: October 20, 2012

TIME: 9:00 AM—1:00 PM

LOCATION: Meet in the South Congregational Church parking lot off South East Street. We will carpool to the site.

Gathered food will be distributed to Not Bread Alone, the First Baptist Church food pantry, the Food Day cooking and preserving food demonstration, others in need and to gleaners. If you would like to participate, please contact Stephanie Ciccarello at (413) 259-3149 or via e-mail : ciccarellos@amherstma.gov to sign up.